“primeclass” CIP Service - The privilege that our passengers deserve...

Since its launch in 2001, "primeclass" CIP Service presents a distinctive CIP mentality with private solutions and privileges offered at Istanbul Ataturk, Ankara Esenboga, Tbilisi and Batumi in Georgia, Enfidha in Tunisia, Skopje and Ohrid International airports in Macedonia.

"primeclass" CIP Service offers numerous privileges accommodating all requirements for passengers and employees who prefer comfort and speed while traveling, and companies who would like to demonstrate the Turkish hospitality to their guests.

International Departure Services

Privileges start with the greeting of the guests by a CIP hostess and a porter at the "primeclass" CIP Service Entrance on Departures Floor of the terminal; luggage are taken by the porter and labeled personally.

Guests enter the terminal through the private security point allocated exclusively for CIP Service.

International Departure

All check-in transactions are completed as a priority in the company of the CIP hostess at the contracted airline counters.

Passport transactions are handled promptly at the "primeclass" private CIP Service passport control point.

*In Ankara, guests are accompanied by an hostess - no private counter is available.

International Departure

Guests can shop at Duty-Free and use the "primeclass" CIP Service preferential payment counter with the assistance of our personnel.

International Departures

Guests are then accompanied to the «primeclass» Lounge to spend time prior to their flights if they chose to do so.

Guests can use the facilities in our comfortable lounge offering internet access, newspapers and magazines, TV and wide range of complimentary snacks.

When it is time for boarding they are seen off by our CIP hostess at the gate.

Please contact us for further information as the services vary by terminals, cities, countries.

* Private terminal vehicles are not available for group organizations.
